PREFACE

Her Majesty's Diplomatic Service provides the staffs of British Diplomatic and Consular posts overseas in Commonwealth and Foreign countries, as well as in the Foreign and Commonwealth Office in London.

The Service was established on 1 January, 1965, by the merger of the former Foreign, Commonwealth and Trade Commissioner Services. Subsequently it incorporated the staffs of the Colonial Office in London, which merged with the Commonwealth Relations Office on 1 August, 1966, to form the Commonwealth Office.

The Foreign Office and Commonwealth Office continued as separate Departments of State responsible to separate Secretaries of State until 17 October 1968. On that day they combined into the Foreign and Commonwealth Office responsible to one Secretary of State. The Permanent Under-Secretary of the Office and the Head of the Diplomatic Service is Sir Paul Gore-Booth.

The organisation of the Service and the careers of its members, who number some 6,000, are described in this List which will be published each year. It is based on information available at the date below but includes details of some later changes.

Representatives of Commonwealth countries and foreign states serving in London are shown in a separate publication, the London Diplomatic List, published by Her Majesty's Stationery Office every two months, price 4s. 6d.

Safe and Profitable Investment

Good Building Societies afford excellent facilities for investors, on whose funds they rely to provide loans for house purchase.

C.S.B.S. is a good Society—your own Society—and gives investors top security with both Shares and Deposits classified as trustee investments. Though you may not wish to save for a house of your own, by opening an account you will be directly helping a Civil Service colleague to home ownership.

FOREIGN AND COMMONWEALTH OFFICE

A Year Book of the Commonwealth 1969

This Year Book was formerly published under the title 'The Commonwealth Office Year Book' and continues a succession of annual reference books which began with the first appearance of the Colonial Office List in 1862. The new title follows the recent merger of the Commonwealth Office and the Foreign Office. It contains essential information about all the countries constituting the Commonwealth today, including the member nations, associated states and dependencies. Background information not readily available elsewhere is provided on the constitutional development of the Commonwealth and the comprising it and on Commonwealth trade and the organisation of British government relations with other Commonwealth countries. Information is also included on the Commonwealth Secretariat, Commonwealth regional organisations, diplomatic representation and currencies, and particulars are given of more than 180 committees, societies and organisations in Britain with Commonwealth interests or links.

67*s*. 6*d*. (By post 72*s*.)

Published by

and obtainable from the Government Bookshops in London (post orders to PO Box 569, S.E.1), Edinburgh, Cardiff, Belfast, Manchester, Birmingham and Bristol, or through any bookseller.

A Service in Government Publications

Her Majesty's Stationery Office offers its readers a comprehensive service that will enable them to judge which titles in the vast output of Government Publications would help them in their work or leisure.

Catalogues are published daily, monthly and annually; in the latter two cases, Statutory Instruments are omitted, and separate catalogues for these are published. In addition, numerous sectional catalogues, issued free of charge, list the publications sponsored by individual Government Departments, and in some cases lists covering special subjects are available.

You can obtain full information about this service by sending a postcard to Her Majesty's Stationery Office, P6A, Atlantic House, Holborn Viaduct, London EC1, asking for our CATALOGUE SERVICE LEAFLET.

Ask at the same time for the name and address of your nearest official agent for Government Publications.
